21st Victorian Christmas Tea - 12-2-2017.

Ruth Ann Rockwell, and her friends throw two annual Victorian Teas; one on Mother's Day and one on Christmas. These teas benefit the Soup of Success program. Ruth is a long-time friend and volunteer of CCS and along with her amazing crew has hosted teas for Soup for Success every May and December since 2002. The annual events are held at Living Faith Fellowship Church at 2601 Benham Avenue in Elkhart, IN from 1-4pm with $5 admission and a non-perishable food or person care item CCS Pantry.

The event featured dozens of fancy edibles, 100+ affordably priced gift baskets, music, silent auction & of course, lots of delicious teas. This year, on Sat. Dec. 2, 2017, many red hat ladies attended and enjoyed the refreshment. WWII Book author Wayne W. White, and Carl Mauck, author of Bonneyville Mills Then and Now (and Ruth's cousin) offered their fascinating books to the public.
