Cathy Antonelli Sworn in New Town Clerk

On Monday, December 30, 2019, Cathy Antonelli was sworn in by retiring Mary Ryman to be the new Bristol Town Clerk and Treasurer. Antonelli is grateful for this opportunity to use her knowledge to assist the community in the coming years. She appreciates the votes of all those who have supported her in the recent election. At the December Town meeting, Ryman was hired to assist Antonelli for a short time in transitioning into her new position. Jill Swartz will assist as Deputy Clerk. Antonelli has been a Bristol resident since 1977, with 34 years of banking experience, developing relationships and computer expertise. On a personal level, she and her husband Mike have two children and two grandsons. A number of friends and relatives gathered at the temporary town hall at the Fire Station to congratulate her.
