Dave Love's Retirement - Aug. 30, 2019.

Dave Love, 24-1/2 yr. Town of Bristol Maintenance Employee, retired on Friday, 8-30-19. A luncheon was held at the Bristol Fire Station, and attended by his children, Ashley, Olivia, Jill, and Davey. His wife, Christine was unable to attend. Some friends and present and former co-workers who were available also attended. His children recalled nostalgic moments of when they were children and watched when he raked leaves or rode along as plowed snow. Dave recalled some of his humorous times working with present and former co-workers like Wendell Bowen, Gary Lowell, and Dave Hart, among others. They worked hard but enjoyed working together. Ashley told how her Dad still had a picture she had drawn and given him on his first day there. His children recalled that their Dad was dedicated at work and devoted at home. They say his next job is Full Time Poppy (with the grandkids). Olivia gave him his final PayDay (candy bar). and Jill & Davey agreed their Dad was the Best at work or home.
