Latest Events at the Bristol Opera House

Elkhart Civic Theatre's ECTeam Youth Theatre will be performing The Ransom of Miss Elverna Dower, January 18, 19 and 20 at the Bristol Opera House. The comedy, directed by Annette Kaczanowski, assisted by Sara Hicks and Penny Shoup, asks the question: If somebody kidnapped your least favorite teacher, would you want her back? In an award-winning comedic tale loosely based on O. Henry's classic story, The Ransom of Red Chief, Casey and Tim nab their demanding English teacher to avoid having to take a test, but they find out that no one wants to pay the ransom! Don't miss this great ECTeam production!

On Jan. 26, 2019 at 7:30pm at the Bristol Opera House, Ms. Deirdre (Dede) Lovejoy presents her one-woman play, "Bird Elephant China: Things I remembered when I forgot myself." She is a former Elkhart resident and ECT performer who has gone on to roles on Broadway, television and motion pictures. Her play is about her experiences following an automobile accident that cause physical injury and temporary memory problems. Don't miss this unique show with an after show reception and a chance to meet Ms. Lovejoy.
